

Tobias Rehberger: I Die Every Day. 1 Cor. 15,31

Rare book

Established German artist Tobias Rehberger (Esslingen,1966) started his stardom in the early nineties. Over the decade, he developed a distinctive and personal style that explored the relationship between function and aesthetics. Often playing with 1960's and '70's design styles, Rehberger's environments, furniture, sculptures and ceiling installations have made him a focus of interest for art criticism stressing contextual approaches and cross-over aspirations.
