

Discursive Variants: Volume 3: Musac Collection III

To commemorate its 5th Anniversary, the MUSAC (Museum of Contemporary Art of Castilla y Leon, Spain) has issued Volume III of its Collection, containing a selection of the most significant artists and most representative works of the turn of the century. Within a period running from 1989 until the present time, the MUSAC Collection aims to examine the major milestones that have evolved on the international scene in the world of contemporary art throughout the past two decades. Included in this third volume are key artists such as Ana Mendieta, Elmgreen & Dragset, Lina Bertucci, Dominique Gonzalez-Foerster, Paul Pfeiffer, Alberto Garcia-Alix and Pierre Huyghe, all of whom are of vital importance for understanding the future of the art world today. Apart from presenting a thorough visual documentation of the various works, they are all analysed in articles written by international art critics.
